“PRESS RRELEASE”

Sub: Formation of Special Team for issuing passes for Primary and High school students.

As per the directions of the Government of Karnataka and for the convenience of students travelling between residence and school/colleges, BMTCL with a target to cater to all such students is issuing concessional rate/free student passes. Likewise action has been initiated to issue concessional smart card passes for the year 2019-20 by receiving online application.

BMTCL has opened counters at its major bus station and TTMCs to issue Student bus passes. Availing this facility, so far 3,21,597 students have obtained the student concession bus pass. For the benefit of primary and high school students who were facing issues with regard to applying / obtaining student bus passes, BMTCL has formed Special Teams who already visited 1528 educational institutions. The bus pass applications were applied at educational institutions on behalf of students and passes were issued at respective counters. Any Educational institutions/students facing any problems with regard to bus passes may contact the Pass Counter at Kempegowda Bus-station.

This special team facility is only for Primary and High School students who are not able to obtain the student passes for various reasons. Apart from this, all other students should apply on-line as notified earlier and obtain passes at respective counters.
